The statement which was made by Mr. Taft a fortnight ago that the revenue measure would be in his hands for final consideration by the 10th of REAL ESTATE BOOSTERS AND June, gave encouragement to the people. #### STATEMENT OF MAY DEFICIT.

Washington, June 1 .- The treasury deficit for May is shown by today's statement to have been $5,453,955. For the eleven months of the current fiscal year a deficit of $97,858,102 is indicated.

The available cash balance was $118,979,764 and the working balance $40.329,000. Total receipts for May were $53,332,310, and disbursements $58,786,257.

This showing is much more favorable than was expected by officials, and indicates that the deficit for the full fiscal year will fall much short of the official estimate of $112,000,000 length of time, and while the necessity for additional cash is not pressing, it is believed that officials will take advantage of the present easy money conditions throughout the country by calling on the national depository banks for the return to treasury of a large part of their hold-

The banks now have deposits subject to the treasury check aggregating about $52,774,000 and it is believed the government interest would not suffer by a withdrawal of at least $20,000,000 of this sum.

May receipts from customs were $27,872,095, an increase over May, 1908, of more than $8,000,000, but a decrease of more than $800,000 as compared with last month.. ceipts from international revenue aggregated $19,295,029, an increase of more than $1,000,00 as compared with the corresponding month last year, and a slight increase over last month

Disbursements for May were a lit tle more than $4,000,000 in excess of those for May last year. There was a decrease in the civil and miscellaneous expenditures for May of $2,700. 000, as compared with April this year and an increase of about $1,000,000 on account of the navy. Pensions also increased about $3,000,000 and public works $3,500,000.

CROWDS LOOK AT PORTRAIT.

London, June 1.-Crowds of the curious stand daily before Holbein's portrait of Christina, duchess of Milan, in the national gallery, wondering how soon it will go to America, which is now regarded as its ultimate destination. The period of option for its purchase by the nation expired today, but the promised subscriptions are now nowhere near the purchase price-$350,000. It was expected that Colnaghi & Co., who paid $305,000 to the Duke of Norfolk for the painting, would remove it tonight. It is still hanging in its place. Sir Charles director of the gallery, seemed hopeful that another period of delay would be granted.

YOUNG GERMAN RENOUNCES RIGHT TO LARGE FORTUNE

San Francisco, June 1 .- Otto E. Schroeder, formerly a clerk in a Los Angeles hotel, but the son of wealthy parents in Germany, the recent announcement of whose engagement to Miss Ida H. Taggart of Monrovia was followed quickly by a summons for his return home to serve in the army of Emperor William, has decided to sacrifice the fortune awaiting him in the old country and make a home for himself in Southern California. He made this announcement today after visiting German Consul General Franz Bepp. He came to this city, he said, to satisfy his father, a copper manufacturer of Plau, who wished him to undergo a physical examination for admission to the German army, but he has fully resolved not to go back home, where a fortune to which he has fallen heir awaits him. He will take the examination, however, before returning to Los Angeles, where he expects soon to be married.

water to cure the hiccoughs? Do you remember the time some one scared the hiccoughs away by telling you of a whipping due for some meanness?

Well, science has been studying hiccoughs and caught the hiccoughs by the "nane of the neck." The nine swallows of water had a little science of the Rapid City, Black Hills and in it, and so did the scare cure. The Western railroad for miles west of scientific hiccough cure consists in here, and many miles of Burlington pressing down to numbness the nerve that connects the stomach, heart, lungs and brain, the pneumogastric nerve The pressure partially and locally paralyzes this nerve and of necessity the hiccoughing must cease.

Have the hiccoughing patient sit down and be at ease, with the muscles of the neck relaxed as much as possible. Grasp both sides of the neck somewhat toward the back part and press down steadily and as hard as the subject may permit for about one minute, having the patient work the head from side to side. Within about one minute the nerve will be numbed and rested and the spasmodic motion will cease. It may require longer pressure is some cases, but the result is sure If patience is maintained.
